Education & Outreach

Opportunities to grow and develop in the arts can lead to personal fulfillment, lifelong benefits, and positive societal change. MACA plays an active role in supporting events and organizations which connect willing learners with great instructors.

Featured Partners

A Work of Heart Productions (AWOHP) was founded in 2014 by Nicole Lippey. The company consists of professional New York City performers, and produces shows, musicals in concert, and a cabaret series at the famed Feinstein's/54 Below, The Triad Theater, The Metropolitan Room, and more. AWOHP also offers a summer community Main Stage production, and a year-round educational program for teens and college students, Bringing Broadway Home (BBH), as well as youth performing arts programming/workshops. BBH operates in 5-6 week master classes/showcases/musicals in concert with established professionals in the performing arts industry as Artist-Mentors to students, alongside Master Teachers and Artistic Directors Nicole Lippey and Angelo De Fazio. The roster of Artist-Mentors includes Sean Green, Jr. (Hamilton on Broadway), Erin Dilly (Broadway Legend and Tony Nominee), Hilary Maiberger (Belle, International Tour of Beauty and the Beast), Katie Travis (Christine Daae, Broadway and National Tour of Phantom of the Opera), and more. AWOHP is thrilled to bring quality performing arts to Madison and the Community Arts Center!
